

OVERVIEW SHEET

Purpose, Values, and Norms:

- Our purpose is to bring together fashion-minded community members to connect in person, support one another, experiment boldly with personal style, and learn more about fashion, styling, and fiber arts.
- Values:
 - Creativity and self-expression: we celebrate individuality and encourage members to explore and express their unique style – from butch to femme and beyond.
 - Strength in diversity: everyone is welcome and all styles and perspectives are valued.
 - Curiosity and learning: we foster a spirit of exploration, continual learning, and experimentation.
 - Collaboration and community support: we uplift and empower each other.
- Norms:
 - Check yourself: be mindful of biases and honor diversity in fashion and creative expression.
 - Show support: offer encouragement, constructive feedback (only when asked), and help others feel confident.
 - Participate and share: speak up during meetings and assist in facilitating activities.
 - Respect time and space: stay engaged, respect others when they are speaking, and help maintain a welcoming environment.
 - Repair with care: address harm directly and compassionately where possible.

Member Expectations:

- Attend and facilitate Club meetings.
- Join the Club WhatsApp community.
- Adhere to the Club's purpose, values, and norms.

Meeting Structure and Frequency:

- Club meetings are generally held monthly and run for two hours.
- Meeting locations will vary and align with the Club's stated purpose, values, and norms.
- Meetings begin with a brief introduction and are followed by a member-led activity.

Contacts:

Sam Schultz	Coordinator
Jake Edmister	Coordinator